ANY OTHER COMMENTS

"I have been really impressed with the level of service received - from teh friendly morning greetings to the little touches of personal cards to the prompt emails"

" ...For a busy household, you make our life so much easier!"

"He wants to come on days we don't work he loves it that much!"

1 family suggested having a detailed feedback every evening - unfortunately this is not something we can do. We do however update the 'going home board' with activities of the day and dinner. We update Facebook daily with activities and will speak to you individually if there is the need. We do a detailed hand over in the settling in phase to support parents.
Thank you for your suggestion
